presents

POETRY SLAM

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 21
3:00 - 5:00 pm

at

Art Space Lansdowne
25 S. Lansdowne Avenue

Upcoming Poetry Slams take place monthly, on:
March 14
April 18 - May 16

FEBRUARY'S THEME:

What does Black History Month Mean to You?

A contest for Teens ages 14-18

Awards will be given to all teens who participate and there will be a prize for the winner.

You must submit your poem, lyrics, or spoken words by 11:59 pm on Thursday, Feb. 19, by emailing them to Meg.flisek@gmail.com

Winner will be chosen by the audience the day of the Poetry Slam.

Adults and others wishing to participate in the Poetry Slam but not enter the contest will read first (3:00-3:30; more time may be allotted depending on the crowd). There will be an agenda for you to review. Audience members are welcome.

A $2 donation requested from attendees; $5 for those who read. Teen readers who enter contest are not expected to donate.

This event is coordinated in part by: Holcomb Behavioral Health Systems and funded in part by: The Delaware County Office of Behavioral Health, Division of Drug and Alcohol Programs.
